—Wool is being marketed rapidly. Trade in consequence is brisk. Every good man and true is in the corn field taking advantage of the favorable weather. The river has too much water in it to be good fishing. The season so far has been most favorable to man.

—Henry W. McLaughlin graduates this month from Hampden Sidney as one of the honorees of the class. He takes the degree of A. B. Miss Annie McLaughlin attended the commencement exercises.

—The male and female schools of Lewisburg, Greenbrier county, of this state, have each published a newspaper lately, folio in size, all home print. The boys' is called The Broadaxe, and the girls' The Esquimaux.

—The following items are from the Highland Recorder:

Married: Mr. Geiger of Driftwood, to Miss Sheets of Green Bank; and Charlie Phillips of Top of Alleghany to Emma Bader of Buffalo Mountain.

Mr. S. B. Sieg leaves today for Charleston, W. Va., where he will wed Miss Mattie B. Craig, one of that city's fairest daughters.

Camp Yeager, Greenbrier River, W. Va., reports the following catch for 24 days fishing: John A. Whitlaw, 161; Peter D. Arbogast, 222; Gay Barner, 141; W. A. Slaven, 256; total, 580.

—Mr. Wm. F. Arbogast has been in town for a few days. He will in the future operate with the lumber company now establishing a plant on Holly river, Webster county. About eight miles railway is being constructed up Holly river from the W. Va. & Pittsburg R. R.

—One of the boys from this place is besieging the Clerk's office to obtain "the license." Bath county, the residence of his sweet-heart, refuses to accommodate him on account of the minority of the prospective bride, and an unqualified hard-heartedness of the mother. Love laughed at the Clerk of Bath county, and the bold wooer returned to the hospitable shores of Pocahontas, having great faith in our county clerk. Meeting with no better success, the next move of the young man to remove the disability is watched with interest.

—The Hillsboro Training School had its commencement exercises on Tuesday afternoon of this week. A large tent had been erected to accommodate the audience and was filled with spectators from all over the county. One of the largest crowds ever in Academy. The exercises consisted of calisthenics, drills, marches, Indian-club dance, vocal and instrumental music, etc. The Indian club dance was a striking performance. The program showed careful preparation, and the weather being favorable, nothing was lacking to make a complete and enjoyable success.

—Jack McClosky, a well known lumberman, and one of the men on the last drive, was shot by a citizen at Caldwell, W. Va., in the thigh, with a Winchester rifle, cal. 44. He was sent to Providence hospital, Baltimore, to have his leg amputated, where he died from the effects of the wound. He was a fine hand and belonged to the type that ever and anon loves "to come in and clean out the place." We are sorry to hear of the terrible happening, for he was a good hearted fellow, well liked by those who knew him best.

—The Huntersville adherents made an effort through their attorneys, Messrs. Jones and Parrish, of Virginia, to have the removal of the records to the temporary court house at this place, enjoined basing their claim for an injunction on the character of the building. The injunction was refused by Judge Campbell, and the court will in all probability be at this place. The accommodations found at this place will be as comfortable for the court-time visitor, as they would be at any place in the county, though we are Irish enough to be delighted with the idea of sharing our wretchedness with all comers, were it otherwise than it is here. We look forward with great anticipation to the novelty of a court held here, and especially desire to see what effect it will have on certain prominent citizens, who have established certain time-honored customs of procedure in the transaction of business, et cetera, on court-day, in Huntersville. There will be no special meeting place of choice spirits, no special place to lean over the fence, certain trees on which he scratched his back will be six miles away. Where to go to dinner will be a question. Every one though will easily adapt himself to the changed circumstances, and we hope to see as many men come dashing up, and as boldly, as were to be seen from Loury & Doyle's hotel porch in days of yore.

—Money, the healer of all hurts, the product of equity, has been produced in sufficient quantity to restore the battered feelings of two young ladies, the Misses Williams, of Mingo Flats, to their normal condition. Two English gentlemen, Messrs. Langworthy and Estridge had been pledged and promised to such an extent that when they absented themselves without cause, after the marriage license had been sued out, it constituted what we know as a "breach." Our information is that the sum of $500 and horse to each has been accepted in lieu of a prepossessing Briton. Now may they take off their harps from where they had been hung in sadness and sorrow upon the worm fence, and instead of wedding bells, the song of the sirens may be heard again, in strains sweeter than before.

THE BEST.

An old gentleman in Maryland said he had raised his family on "Sellers' Liver Pills," and considered them almost as essential to a family as bread. That's true.

Nothing like "Sellers' Liver Pills" for headache, biliousness, dizziness, constipation.

A. M. Doyle of Columbus, Ga., says: From my own experience, I know "Sellers' Liver Pills" to be the best in use. They cure malaria etc. constipation, biliousness, and sick headache. "Sellers' Liver Pills."
